MEDIA RELEASE

EVACUATION ORDER IN EFFECT FOLLOWING TANKER SPILL IN LEMON CREEK

The Regional District of Central Kootenay has declared a State of Local Emergency and a mandatory Evacuation Order following a traffic accident in the Slocan Valley at Lemon Creek.

A tanker truck carrying approximately 35,000 litres of jet fuel for fire crews working in the Perry Ridge area of the Slocan Valley went off the road and entered Lemon Creek north of Winlaw late Friday afternoon.

The Regional District has issued an evacuation order that mirrors one issued by the province through the provincial medical officer. Highway 6 will be closed from the junction with Highway 3 to the junction with Highway 31. The evacuation order covers an area from Playmor Junction (Highway 3 & 6) to three kilometres north of Lemon Creek. Residents within three kilometres of water courses in the evacuation area are impacted. This will impact approximately 2500 residents.

The evacuation order is geographically broad for precautionary reasons as there are potential negative health impacts from fumes, particularly in confined spaces. The possibility of an explosion from a buildup of fumes in a confined space is also a reason for the scope of the evacuation order.

An incident command centre has been established at the Winlaw fire hall. Emergency Social Services (ESS) personnel are arranging temporary reception centres around the evacuation order area. These include Selkirk College, area high schools, motels and hotels.

Emergency responders, including RCMP, Search and Rescue, volunteer fire departments and trained personnel from assisting agencies are going door-to-door to inform residents.

A HAZMAT response crew is en route from Vancouver and is expected to be on site by three a.m.

Residents are asked to comply with emergency responders and avoid using any water from sources within the evacuation order area and 10 kilometres downstream .

Residents can contact the Emergency Operations Centre for specifics on evacuation procedures at 1-800-268-7325.
